HF
5429
A2
J86

Bus. Adm.

INDEX TO
JOURNAL OF RETAILING

VOLUMES 17 AND 18

February 1941—December 1942

INDEX TO
JOURNAL OF RETAILING

VOLUMES 17 and 18

FEBRUARY 1941 — DECEMBER 1942

(The first figure is the volume number; the second is the page number. 41 refers to Volume 17, covering the year 1941; and 42 refers to Volume 18 covering the year 1942.)

Advertising, Allowances, 41–36
Advertising, Campaigns, 42–67
Advertising, Facts That Must Be Disclosed, 42–85
Advertising, Trends in Copy 1920–1940, 41–78
Advertising, Under War Conditions, 42–39
Advertising, Wartime Advertising Techniques, 42–97
Army, A Commission in the Army Exchange Service, 42–99
Aronow, Calvin W., How Customers Want Salespeople to Serve Them, 42–5

Backman, Jules, Rationing in Wartime, 41–98
Banks, Murray, A Year's Experience With Coöperative Education for Distributive Education, 42–93
Book Reviews, 41–31, 41–63, 41–95, 41–127, 42–31, 42–44, 42–63, 42–95, 42–12
Branch-Store Developments, New York City, 41–4
Brisco, Norris A., Editorial: Retailing Education in Wartime, 42–65
Budgets, Advertising Allowances, 41–36
Burten, Jess K., The Wishmaker's House—A Coördinated Home-Furnishings Plan, 41–43
Buying, The Buyer and Training, 42–102
Buying, Group-Order Purchasing of Staples, 41–109
Buying, Merchandise Diversification in Unit Stores, 42–113
Buying, Quiz, 41–8
Buying, To Whom Do a Department Store's Operating Figures Belong?, 42–24

Census, Births and Deaths in Retailing, 42–122
Census, Retail (1939), 41–18
Chain stores, Trends, 41–34
Consumers, Anti-Hoarding Campaigns, 42–48
Consumers, How Customers Want Salespeople to Serve Them, 42–5
Consumer Publications, National Consumer-Retailer Council Publications, 41–126, 42–89
Control, Scientific Control of Staples Stocks, 41–12
Corbin, Claire, Survey of Department-Store Training Methods, 42–16

Defense, What Retailers Are Doing, 41–9
Department Stores, Improving Personnel Relations, 42–2
Department Stores, Self-Service Experiments, 42–67
Department Stores, Training Methods, 42–16
Department Stores, Trends, 41–2
Distribution, Monopoly in Retail Food Distribution, 41–112
Distribution, The Merchant's Horizon Is Beyond His Door, 41–33
Dorner, Seymour S., The Wishmaker's House—A Coördinated Home-Furnishings Plan, 41–43
Dorsey, James A., Problems—Solutions, 42–90

Editorials, 41–1, 41–33, 41–97, 42–1, 42–33, 42–65, 42–97
Education, Comprehending the Problems of the Merchants, 42–60
Education, Organization for Teachers of Retailing, 42–31
Education, Coöperative Education for Distributive Education, 42–93
Education, Coöperative Retail Training for High-School Graduates, 41–28
Education, Employee Libraries, 42–22
Education, Jobs Obtained by High-School Graduates, 41–35
Education, National Consumer-Retailer Publications of Interest to Retailers, 42–89
Education, New-Type Examinations in Retailing, 41–59
Education, Place of Salesmanship in Curriculum, 41–90
Education, Problems—Solutions, 42–90
Education, Training for Distributive Education, 42–60
Education, Wartime Problems, 42–93

Fashions, Forecasting, 41–69
Fashions, How Much Do You Know About Clothes (Quiz), 42–122
Fashions, Originators' Guild Decision, 41–54
Foster, Hugh M., Monopoly in Retail Food Distribution, 41–112

Galper, Sidney A., Salesmanship Class Puts on a Fashion Show, 42–123

Bus. Adm. Lib.

Gimbel, Bernard F., Editorial: How to Advertise in Wartime, 42–97
Gillespie, Karen R., Importance of Merchandise Facts, 42–111
Goldenthal, Irving, Retail Personnel Problems in 1941, 41–7
——, To Whom Do a Department Stores Figures Belong?, 42–24
Government regulations, Facts That Must Be Disclosed Legally in Retail Selling, 42–82
Government regulations, Fashion Originators' Guild Decision, 41–54
Government regulations, Federal Agencies Retailers Should Know, 42–85
Government regulations, How Much Do You Know About Government Regulation of Retailing (Quiz), 42–15, 42–88
Government regulations, Reports Stores Make to Public Authorities, 41–23
Graham, Jennie S., Coöperative Retail Training for High-School Graduates, 41–28

Haas, Kenneth B., Training for Leadership in Distributive Education, 42–26
Higginbotham, Stuart J., Comprehending the Problems of the Merchant, 42–60
Holmes, William H., Editorial: The Show Must Go On, 41–97
Home furnishings, A Coördinated Home-Furnishings Plan—The Wishmaker's House, 41–43

Interior Decorating, A Coördinated Home-Furnishings Plan—The Wishmaker's House, 41–43

Kraft, Myrtle E., New-Type Examinations in Retailing, 41–59
Krusa, Hans E., Reports Stores Make to Public Authorities, 41–23
——, Retail Trade in 1941, 42–57
Kunis, Manuel, Retail Trade in New York Metropolitan Area, 41–85

Libraries, Employee Libraries, 42–22

Merchandise, Importance of Facts, 42–111
Merchandise Control, A Fall Opening Plan for Dresses, 42–118
Merchandise Control, Stock Control for Staples, 41–12
Metcalf, Wendell O., Salesmanship in the Retailing Curriculum, 41–90
Miller, B. Franklin, A Fall Opening Plan for Dresses, 42–118
——, Retail Buying under War Conditions, 42–44

Namm, Benjamin H., Editorial: Now It Should Be Told!, 41–1
——, Retailers for Victory, 42–35
New York City, Branch Stores, 41–4
New York, Trade, 41–85
Nolan, C. A., Laboratory Materials for Selling Classes, 41–123
Nordstrom, Lawrence, Advertising Allowances, 41–36

Operation, Store, Exclusive Ready-to-Wear Department, 41–49
Operation, Store, The Wishmaker's House—A Coördinated Home-Furnishings Plan, 41–43

Personnel, How Department Stores Can Improve Personnel Relations, 42–2
Personnel, Jobs Obtained by High-School Graduates, 41–35
Personnel, Manpower, 42–1
Personnel, Problems in 1941, 41–7
Personnel, Retailing Education in Wartime, 42–65
Personnel, Training for Executive Leadership, 42–33
Policy, Now it Should be Told!, 41–1
Policy, Wartime Fashions—The Show Must Go On, 41–97
Prices, Compared to Wholesale (1939–1942), 42–34
Promotion, Promoting the Linens, Domestics, and Blanket Department, 41–105
Putter, Vita M., Promoting the Linens, Domestics, and Blanket Department, 41–105

Rathnell, J. Racklin, Merchandise Diversification in Unit Stores, 42–113
Rationing, Wartime Practices, 41–98
Ready-to-Wear, The Ready-to-Wear Department, 41–49
Regulations, Fashion Originators' Guild Decision, 41–54
Regulations, Loss-Leaders, 41–120
Regulations, Quiz on Government Regulations of Retailing, 42–15
Regulations, Reports Stores Make to Public Authorities, 41–23
Reports, Store Reports to Authorities, 41–23
Robbins, Joseph C., A Scientific Method of Stock Control for Staples, 41–12
Robinson, O. Preston, How Customers Want Salespeople to Serve Them, 42–5
——, Meet Forty Top-Notch Salespeople, 41–19
——, Types of Salespeople, 41–19
Rothschild, Walter, Editorial: Training for Executive Leadership, 42–2
Ruttenberg, Selma, Branch-Store Developments among New York City Stores, 41–4

Sales, Retail Census (1939), 41–18
Salesmanship, Facts That Must Be Disclosed, 42–82
Salesmanship, How Customers Want Salespeople to Serve Them, 42–5
Salesmanship, How Much Do You Know About Retail Salesmanship (Quiz), 42–56
Salesmanship, Meet Forty Top-Notch Salespeople, 41–19
Salesmanship, Place in the Retailing Curriculum, 41–90
Salesmanship, Types of Salespeople, 42–10
Schaap, Michael, Editorial: Manpower, 42–1
Schaller, Elmer O., Loss-Leader Regulations, 41–120
——, Retail Trade in 1940, 41–56
——, Trends in the Chain-Store Field, 41–34
Scherer, Miriam, Employee Libraries, 42–22
——, Fashion Forecasting, 41–69
Seidman, Nathan B., Exclusive Ready-to-Wear Department and the Specialty Store, 41–49
Self-Service, Department Stores, 42–74
Services, Customer Services under War Conditions, 42–44
Slockbower, George P., Retail Advertising under War Conditions, 42–39
Specialty Stores, Ready-to-Wear, 41–49
Steagall, Jane, Advertising Campaigns, 42–67
——, Customer Services under War Conditions, 42–44
Sternhart, Frances B., Trends in Retail Advertising Copy, 41–78
Straus, Jack I., Editorial: The Merchant's Horizon Is Beyond His Door, 41–33
Sylbert, Viola, Customer Services under War Conditions, 42–44
——, Self-Service in Department Stores, 42–74

Teachers' Aids, A Year's Experience with Coöperative Education for Distributive Education, 42–93
Teachers' Aids, An Organization for Teachers of Retailing, 42–31
Teachers' Aids, Comprehending the Problems of the Merchant, 42–60
Teachers' Aids, Coöperative Retail Training for High-School Graduates, 41–28
Teachers' Aids, Laboratory Materials for Selling Classes, 41–123
Teachers' Aids, National Consumer-Retailer Council Publications, 41–126, 42–89
Teachers' Aids, New-Type Examinations in Retailing, 41–59
Teachers' Aids, Rating Sheet for Teaching Ability, 42–125
Teachers' Aids, Salesmanship Class Puts on a Fashion Show, 42–123
Teachers' Aids, Salesmanship in the Retailing Curriculum, 41–90
Teachers' Aids, Training for Leadership in Distributive Education, 42–26
Thorman, Irma M., Buyer and Retail Training, 42–102
Trade, Retail Trade in the New York Metropolitan Area, 41–85
Trade, Retail Trade (1940), 41–56; (1941), 42–57
Training, Buyer and Training, 42–102
Trends, Chain Stores, 41–34
Training, Coöperative Training for High-School Graduates, 41–28
Training, Survey of Department-Store Training Methods, 42–16
Training, Training for Executive Leadership, 42–33
Trends, Current Events (1941), 41–65
Trends, Department Store, 41–2
Trends, Retail Advertising Copy, 1920–1940, 41–78

Victor, Shirley, Customer Services under War Conditions, 42–49

Wartime, Advertising, 42–39
Wartime, Buying, 42–44
Wartime, Fashion Policy, 41–97
Wartime, How to Advertise in Wartime, 42–97
Wartime, Manpower, 42–1
Wartime, Rationing, 41–98
Wartime, Retail Education, 42–65
Wartime, Work of Retailers, 42–35
Wingate, Isabel W., Rating Sheet for Teaching Ability, 42–99
Wingate, John W., A Commission in the Army Exchange Service, 42–99
——, Facts That Must Be Disclosed Legally in Retail Selling, 42–82
——, Trends in Department-Store Field, 41–2